

I grew up and went to school in Port-Vendres.

At the age of 20, I spent a year in England as an Au-paire to learn English.

I came back with a good understanding of spoken English.

In France, I passed my Bilingual Secretary Exam.

For the following 12 years, I went back and forward between France and England.

From 1994 to 2002, I lived in England. (Bournemouth, Clovelly, Slough, Maidstone and back in Bournemouth)

I held several positions, where I worked first as waitress then took a job as a Receptionist onboard Ferry for 2 years.

In 2002, I came back to France (Paris). But realise that the large town was not for me.

Than, I decided to come back to Port-Vendres. After several years of job searching, I decided that I will create my own enterprise and do what I liked to do best: Help English speaking in France.

In April 2008, I start my own business as Eve'Solutions.
